I specifically understand and agree that, as part of the participant selection process, and as part of the Program, if selected, I and other applicants and participants will be asked questions and will discuss topics of an extremely private and potentially embarrassing nature (possibly including, without limitation, gender, sexual orientation and/or sexual experiences, race, color, ethnicity, national origin, family life, religion, political affiliation, disability, marital status, age, financial condition and other topics that could be considered offensive in other circumstances). However, in connection with my participation in the Program, including, without limitation, in the participant selection process, I specifically welcome being in an environment where such questions may be asked of me and others, and where such topics may be discussed. I also agree to notify Producer immediately if I feel harassed or threatened by, or uncomfortable with, the behavior of Producer or any individual connected with the production of the Program or the Program environment at
