HOW TO PLAY

You’ll need at least one CLUE GIVER, one GUESSER and a HOST to show the CLUE GIVER names. In this game, the more people playing, the merrier. You can add as many CLUE GIVERS or GUESSERS as you like. You’ll also need a timing device like your phone, kitchen timer, etc. CLUE GIVER(S) and HOST stand side by side while CLUE GUESSER(S) stand far enough away so as not to see the name.

When the game begins, HOST will show a series of famous names from pop culture, politics, news etc. to the CLUE GIVERS. CLUE GIVERS can use impressions, songs or anything about the famous person in order to get the GUESSER(S) to say the correct name. What they can’t do is say, “rhymes with,” or use any part of the famous person’s first or last name. Doing so will result in humiliation and the name is thrown out.

If anyone gets stuck, they can pass, but the name may resurface later. If a team can successfully identify 10 celebrities in 90 seconds, they win the round, the right to brag and an imaginary $25,000 that they can donate to the charity of their choice, like their school or boyfriend’s emergency pizza fund, etc.

Now that you’ve gotten the hang of these Play at Home packets, it’s time for you to sprinkle in some creativity! We’ve provided some famous names to get you started, but the host will need to customize the blank slides with some of your group’s favorite celebs!

Set the timer to 90 seconds. HOST, get your list of names. PLAYERS, take your positions.

Play one of two ways!
One clue per page is best if you’re screen sharing. If you’re printing the clues, use the page with six clues on it to save paper. Then you can cut them out.
